

BLS training conducted at BITS Pilani Goa campus

SUDESH BHOSLE | NT

NT NETWORK

VASCO

A second of its kind Basic Life Support (BLS) training was conducted in Goa at Birla Institute of Science and Technology (BITS) Pilani K K Birla Goa campus at Sancoale.

A certified trainer for BLS and the chairman of St John's Ambulance Association Dr Jorson Fernandes conducted the training.

Twenty four participants from various departments and divisions participated in the training.

BITS Pilani Goa campus now has 50 certified BLS trained staff. The session was organised under the leadership of campus director prof Raghurama G and campus chief medical officer Dr Raghavendra K M.

The registrar of BITS

Chairman of St John's Ambulance Association Dr Jorson Fernandes conducting the basic life support training at BITS Pilani K K Birla Goa campus at Sancoale

Pilani University Ernest Samuel Ratnakumar, who was on his maiden visit to Goa campus, interacted with the training team and appreciated the efforts.

BLS course is conducted to enhance the skills of life support provider while dealing with the emergencies at workplace before the arrival of ambulance/medical team.

The areas covered in the training include course introduction (purpose and objectives of the course and ground rules), emergency medical services and first aider, general principles in first aid, anatomy and physiology of human body system.

SITUATION VACANT

Required female office assistant