

BITS Pilani to host sitar maestro Bhagwat

VASCO: BITS Pilani Goa Campus is set to host Sitar maestro Pandita Anupama Bhagwat in their annual classical music event "Sursangam", a tribute concert in the fond memory of prof Suresh Ramaswamy.

Sursangam 2016, is set to be an enthralling evening. Bhagwat is a well-known sitar instrumentalist, who has been acclaimed world-wide with a repertoire of global performances since 1995. She is known to be the spearhead of Imdadkhani Gharana, and one of the leading disciples of Pandit Bimalendu Mukherjee. Accompanying her on tabla is Mayank Bedekar, one of the well-known tabla exponents of Goa.

Sursangam will be held on September 23 at 5 pm in the BITS auditorium and is free and open for all.
