

BITS Pilani to host symposium

PANJIM: Department of Chemistry of BITS Pilani KK Birla Goa campus will organise a symposium on Recent Advancements in Chemical Sciences and RSC Research Scholar Meet-2016 in collaboration with Goa University and the Western India Section of Royal Society of Chemistry (UK) on November 16. The scientific session will consist of lectures by eminent academicians/ researchers, short lectures by students, and poster presentations. Dr. N N Ghosh of Department of Chemistry of BITS Pilani KK Birla Goa campus (nghosh@goa.bits-pilani.ac.in) and Prof. BR Srinivasan, Department of Chemistry of Goa University are conveners of this symposium. Renowned scientists such as Prof. Govil, Tata Institute of Fundamental Research (TIFR) Mumbai & President of RSC-West India Chapter; Prof. A K Singh, IIT Bombay; Prof K V R Chary, TIFR Mumbai; Dr. GS Grover, Indian Institute of Science Education and Research (IISER), Pune and other eminent scientists will deliver lectures on different aspects of chemistry and will interact with young scientists. There will also be a dedicated poster session as part of the symposium.