

BITS Pilani organises workshop on recent trends in chemistry

NT KURIOCITY

Department of chemistry of BITS Pilani, KK Birla Goa Campus celebrated Department Day by organising 'Recent Trends in Chemistry: Students' Meet 2019'. Around 60 participants including faculty members and MSc students of Goa University and its affiliated colleges participated in the workshop. Chief guest at the workshop was dean of faculty of natural sciences, Goa University, G M Naik; guest of honour was resource person from Decan Fine Chemicals, Kamlesh Pai Fondekar. Director of BITS Pilani, Goa Campus, G Raghurama and dean, sponsored research and consultancy division, Sunil Bhand presented their views during the function.

Head of department of chemistry, Anjan Chatopadhyay presented a detailed overview of the department activities for the knowledge of participants. The programme also included invited talks and oral and poster presentation competitions. The programme concluded with the prize distribution.