

BITS Pilani students perform street plays at 6 locations

■ NT KURIOCIETY

Students of BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus performed street plays at six different locations namely, Zari, Lamani Colony and Birla in Zuarinagar, market and church square in Panaji and at Vasco, in one day. The street plays were performed by volunteers of Nirmaan - organisation founded by BITS Pilani students with a passion to fulfill their responsibility towards the less privileged people of the society.

The Nirmaan street play participants took to the streets of Goa to convey important messages. Awareness was raised on drug abuse and domestic violence, miseries of the Indian election system and improper garbage disposal.
