

Enchanting with music

Sursangam 2017, organized by BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa campus offered a wonderful evening where Pandita Anupama Bhagwat treated the Goan audience to rich music and mastery over sitar. The concert was organized in the fond memory of Prof. Suresh Ramaswamy. Mayank Bedekar, a student of the maestro Shri Suresh Talwalkar, accompanied her on the tabla. Anupamaji's performance was preceded by performances by alumni of BITS Goa. Bharatanatyam by Anand Satheendran opened the event and was followed by Balakrishnan's melodious rendition of Tyagaraja's 'Intasaukhya' in Kaapi Ragam, and a viruttam on Lord Muruga in Sindhu Bhairavi. He was accompanied by Sreecharan on mridangam and Pranav Palande on harmonium. Director of BITS Goa, Prof. G Raghurama and Prof. Radhika Vathsan felicitated the artistes.
