

BITS Goa faculty member appointed to BIS committee: BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus faculty member Nitin Sharma, associate professor in the department of electrical and electronics engineering, has been nominated as an expert member by the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) in a working group focused on international standardisation in the field of aerospace and positioning systems. Sharma will provide technical input on upcoming international standardisation projects related to advanced navigation and positioning systems.